PARASIGHT SOLUTIONS

The Holidays and Leave Policy has been defined to ensure that our employees can take time off for their needs, recreation and medical needs.

1.0 Annual leaves

- Employees will be entitled to 12 working days of annual leave for each full year of service.
- An employee is eligible for Annual leaves after completion of probation which may be of 3 months or 6 months duration effective from the date of employment.
- Annual leave may be taken in units of days or half days. Application to take leave must be duly authorized by the Manager/Teamleader at least 2 weeks before the period of leave commences, unless the requested leave is due to an emergency.
- If the Application for the leave is not submitted at least 2 weeks prior to the period of commencement of the annual leave. The application will be rejected according to the company policies.
- All leave arrangements are subject to the exigencies of service, which may require that an employee takes leave at a time agreed upon by the manager. However, due consideration will be given to the personal circumstances and preferences of employees whenever possible provided it does not interfere the day to day activities to be performed by the employee and which directly or indirectly affect the project timelines or deliverables.
- The leave year will commence on 1 January and end on 31 December. Calculations of annual leave for service less than one year shall be made in proportion to the length of service. Employees shall be required to take their annual leave within the calendar year.
- Employees may carry forward no more than 5 days. Carry over beyond this limit will be allowed under special circumstances, with approval granted in writing by the Manager.

- Leave carried forward should be utilized by the end of the first quarter of the year or if not shall be forfeited.
- A leave schedule should be drawn up at the beginning of the year by line managers. The requirements of the work and wishes of the employee must be given due consideration in scheduling annual leave.
- Encashment of unused leave will not be allowed. Any leave that is not utilized as provided for shall be automatically forfeited.

2.0 Medical Leaves

- Employees are entitled to paid medical/sick leave of up to Six (6) working days annually with full pay.
- Considering a medical/sick leave may come as an emergency, employees have a leeway to report to the immediate reporting Manager/Team Lead at least 1 hour prior to the office timings via email & phone call.
- Failure to report 1 hour prior to the office timings via email & phone call to the immediate reporting Manager/Team Lead will result in unpaid leave.
- All medical leaves must be informed via email & phone call, no other mediums will be accepted, example whatsapp, chat.
- In case of medical/sick leave period extending for more than 2 days in consecutive, a medical certificate from a registered practitioner is to be provided, covering the period of ailment.
- The medical certificate is to be presented to the manager the day the employee reports to work after availing the medical/sick leave. In case of failure to submit the same, the availed medical/sick leave will be considered as unpaid leave.
- Any Employee member who exhausts their sick leave will be required to utilize their annual leave in case of continued absence.
- Sick leave of longer than one month will require the approval of the Manager, A report from a doctor will be essential to determine whether the employee may be retired on health grounds.

3.0 Maternity Leaves

- To be eligible for maternity benefit, a female employee must have been working in the organization for a period of at least 1 year.
- Female employees are entitled to 3 months of paid leaves when she is pregnant. The remuneration of which will be provided to the employee when she joins the organization after the maternity leave.
- Extended maternity leave can be given due consideration in case of personal circumstances and preference as per the female employee.
- Application to take maternity leave must be duly authorized by the Manager/Team Leader/Head of organization at least 3 weeks before the period of leave commences.
- Similar provisions of paternity leaves apply to the adoption of a child under the age of one year.

4.0 Paternity Leaves

- To be eligible for paternity leave benefit, a male employee must have been working in the organization for a period of at least 1 year.
- Male employees are entitled to 7 days of paid leaves before or up to 6 months from the birth of a child. If paternity leave is not availed within the specified period, it will be treated as lapsed.
- Paternity leave is separated from all other leaves and cannot be combined.
- Application to take paternity leave must be duly authorized by the Manager/ Team leader/Head of organization at least 3 weeks before the period of leave commences.
- Similar provisions of paternity leaves apply to the adoption of a child under the age of one year.

PARASIGHT SOLUTIONS

5.0 Sandwich Leaves

- The Sandwich policy is a practice where an usual week off gets clubbed with the paid leave applied by the employee just near the week off and is treated as a leave day.
- For instance: If leave is applied by an employee for Friday and subsequent Monday, the company shall count both Saturday and Sunday also as leave
- Disciplinary action will be taken in case of absence without approval.

FAQ's

Who is eligible for the leave?

Leave cannot be claimed as a matter of right. When the exigencies of the company so require, discretion to refuse or revoke leave of any description is reserved to the sanctioning authority. Employees will need to report back to their manager in such cases. Else, the organization holds the authority to take action against the employee.

Any employee under probation or training is not entitled to leaves as per the leave policy.

What is unpaid leave or leave without pay?

- An employee can avail leave without pay in case existing leave balance is exhausted and the employee is in need of leave due to unforeseen circumstances.
- In case no approval is taken for leave without pay, such absence of an employee will be considered as Leave of absence from work.
- Disciplinary action will be taken in case of absence without approval.
- No salary would be given to employees for the days leave without pay is availed.
- Once approved by the immediate reporting manager and department head, Leave can be availed by the employee.

PARASIGHT SOLUTIONS

How to apply for leave / unpaid leave / medical leaves / Maternity Leaves?

- Annual leave may be taken in units of days or half days. Application to take leave must be duly authorized by the Manager/Team Leader at least 2 weeks before the period of leave commences, unless the requested leave is due to an emergency
- Considering a medical/sick leave may come as an emergency, employees have a leeway to report to the immediate reporting Manager/Team Lead at least 1 hour prior to the office timings via email & phone call.
- Loss of Pay or Leave without pay can be availed by an employee by applying to the immediate manager/team lead for approval. Once approved by the concerned authority leave can be availed by the employee.
- Application to take maternity leave must be duly authorized by the Manager/Team Leader/Head of organization at least 3 weeks before the period of leave commences
- Disciplinary action will be taken in case of absence without approval.